THIRD PARTY CONSENT

It is the policy of Fullerton College not to release information about students to a third party without prior written consent from the student, except to persons and agencies authorized by law. Occasionally, the College may make an exception, in response to legitimate inquiries, by providing general directory information as identified below.

- Name
- Date and place of birth
- Date of attendance
- Degrees and awards received
- Major field of study
- Participation in officially recognized activities or sports
- Weight and height if a member of an athletic team
- Previous educational institution attended

In accordance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974, personal records may not be released to a third party without prior authorization of the student. This directive will remain in effect until you submit this form requesting the release of personal information.
