100+ Years of Educating Students
Welcome

Welcome to Fullerton College!

With a population of 140,000, the city of Fullerton combines its small town charm with a friendly and historic downtown area within walking distance of campus. With an average of 300 days of sunshine every year, you'll find yourself exploring all that the city has to offer. Historic homes, a strong music and art scene, and lots of public transit options will keep you busy when you're not studying.

Fullerton is located in Orange County, in sunny Southern California, 15 minutes to Disneyland, 20 minutes to Knott's Berry Farm, and just 25 minutes to the beaches in Newport and Huntington Beach! Los Angeles and San Diego are only an hour away, which makes Fullerton College the ideal place to do and see everything Southern California has to offer.
The United States is known world-wide for its reputation as a top research and study destination. It is a place that encourages and creates opportunities for cross-cultural engagement by bringing together intellectual talent from around the world. Here, you are able to connect and create networks with people from across the globe in one place. Few other countries reflect the rich diversity of students and talent that chooses to study here.

The educational system in the USA values and supports students’ exploration of interests beyond their main focus, and actively encourages and creates opportunities for students to concurrently pursue multiple interests and passions. Combine this with significant post-graduation employment opportunities at all levels, it is no surprise that over 1 million international students choose to study in the USA.

Why Choose a Community College?

Community colleges prepare students for transfer to four-year universities. The public community college system is an extensive and well-respected entry into university in the USA. While this system of education does not exist in many other countries, it provides a much more economical and supportive step for students who wish to earn degrees at university.

Famous people who went to Community College: Clint Eastwood, Steve Jobs, George Lucas, Robin Williams, Halle Berry, Tom Hanks, Arnold Schwarzenegger, Walt Disney.

COMMUNITY COLLEGE: 2+2 PLAN
Complete the first two years of school at community college and then transfer to a university undergraduate program for the last two years, to earn your degree. Following this plan, all students earn their Bachelor’s degree from the four-year university.
